

Hague Apostille Convention Countries

The following is an alphabetical reference list of countries and jurisdictions where the Apostille Convention is in force. Please confirm current status with the official source.

Albania	Germany	Panama
Algeria	Greece	Paraguay
Andorra	Grenada	Peru
Antigua and Barbuda	Guatemala	Philippines
Argentina	Guyana	Poland
Armenia	Honduras	Portugal
Australia	Hungary	Republic of Korea (South Korea)
Austria	Iceland	Republic of Moldova
Azerbaijan	India	Romania
Bahamas	Indonesia	Russian Federation
Bahrain	Ireland	Rwanda
Bangladesh	Israel	Saint Kitts and Nevis
Barbados	Italy	Saint Lucia
Belarus	Jamaica	Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
Belgium	Japan	Samoa
Belize	Kazakhstan	San Marino
Bolivia	Kosovo	Sao Tome and Principe
Bosnia and Herzegovina	Kyrgyzstan	Saudi Arabia
Botswana	Latvia	Senegal
Brazil	Lesotho	Serbia
Brunei Darussalam	Liberia	Seychelles
Bulgaria	Liechtenstein	Singapore
Burundi	Lithuania	Slovakia
Cabo Verde	Luxembourg	Slovenia
Canada	Malawi	South Africa
Chile	Malta	Spain
Colombia	Marshall Islands	Suriname
Cook Islands	Mauritius	Sweden
Costa Rica	Mexico	Switzerland
Croatia	Monaco	Tajikistan
Cyprus	Mongolia	Tonga
Czech Republic	Montenegro	Trinidad and Tobago
Denmark	Morocco	Tunisia
Dominica	Namibia	Türkiye (Turkey)
Dominican Republic	Netherlands	Ukraine

Ecuador	New Zealand	United Kingdom
El Salvador	Nicaragua	United States of America
Estonia	Niue	Uruguay
Eswatini	North Macedonia	Uzbekistan
Fiji	Norway	Vanuatu
Finland	Oman	Venezuela
France	Pakistan	Viet Nam (Vietnam)
Georgia	Palau

Important: Thailand has acceded but the Convention is not scheduled to take effect there until February 28, 2027, so it is not included above. Acceptance can also depend on objections between countries and the receiving authority. Confirm requirements before submitting documents.

Official source: Hague Conference on Private International Law (HCCH), Apostille Convention status table:
<https://www.hcch.net/en/instruments/conventions/status-table/?cid=41>